

Food and Agriculture
Organization of the United Nations

FAO AWARDS

The Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations (FAO) has the pleasure to inform its Members that the call for nominations of the FAO Awards has been officially launched.

Individuals, private companies and institutions worldwide are being called to submit nominations for:

- The FAO Award for Partnership: recognizes and rewards the efforts of noteworthy and effective partnerships that contribute to achieving sustainable development. This Award will be conferred during a special ceremony at the first Session of the FAO Council in 2026.
- The FAO Award for Achievement: recognizes outstanding results in various sectors and programmes related to the work of the Organization. This Award will be conferred during the annual World Food Day celebrations.
- The FAO Award for Innovation: recognizes ground-breaking innovations in areas under FAO's mandate to a broad spectrum of awardees including Members or non-state partners. This Award will be conferred during a special ceremony at the FAO Council Session held during the second half of 2026.

The monetary value of each Award is USD 10.000. FAO employees or teams will not receive cash prizes.

More information is included in the terms and conditions, and the application form is available on the FAO Awards website.

We would be grateful for your support in promoting the award as much as possible before the call closes on 15 February 2026 at 23.59 CET.

For more information please contact: FAO-Awards@fao.org